Terms and Conditions

Payment at the time of booking is required. An invoice will be generated for you which can be paid by Mastercard and Visa by logging into your account on the AMR website. Direct credit payments are also accepted; we do not accept cheques or American Express.

Payments for exhibitor bookings and sponsorships are non-refundable except in the unlikely event that the AMR cancels the convention. If this occurs, refunds will be made in full.

Accommodation costs are not included in the stated registration fee. The Pullman has offered a special flexible room rate of $250 per night which may be canceled up to 15 July 2026. Follow this link to book, enter your dates and the code AKDC21 in the Preferential code box as pictured here:

The screenshot shows a hotel booking search interface. At the top, there are search criteria: dates from Aug 05 to Aug 07, 1 adult, 1 room, and a checked 'Special rates' option. A green 'Search' button is to the right. Below the search bar, there are filter options: 'Free cancellation' (unchecked) and 'Program member' (unchecked). A message states '13 rooms are available for your search'. A room image is shown with a '1/5' indicator. On the right side, there are input fields for 'Loyalty / subscription card' (16-digit card number), 'Professional travelers' (Client code: SC (AS) 0000, Access code: 10 characters), and 'Preferential code' (AKDC21).

This is a central city hotel with no options for outdoor display of large equipment.

The hotel will only accept shipments of exhibitor materials up to 2 days prior to the event.

Attendees are responsible for the actions of their staff and contractors. By registering, you certify that you have appropriate insurance in place to indemnify you from damages and any other claims that may arise from your actions and the actions of your staff and contractors.

AMR and the Pullman Hotel reserve the right to refuse service to any delegate deemed to be intoxicated or acting in an inappropriate manner.

We have a zero tolerance policy to alcohol-related incidents at the venue, regardless of whether these occur during function hours or not. Member companies will be subject to the disciplinary process for all incidents involving their representatives.

Tour programme participation is not included in your exhibitor registration. If your company representatives wish to attend the tour programme, you will need to register on the Conference Innovators website (registrations will open on 15 May 2026), pay the additional fee, and make arrangements for your exhibitor stand to be removed by the clearance time.

Take note in your diary

Set up is from 4-9 pm on Wednesday, 5 August

All exhibitor stands must be cleared by 10 am on Friday, 7 August. Penalty charges may be payable if this deadline is not met.
